A JOURNEY OF SELF-LOVE AND HAIR REMOVAL

WRITTEN AND PERFORMED BY CLARE ELLEN O'CONNOR

A JOURNEY OF SELF-LOVE AND HAIR REMOVAL

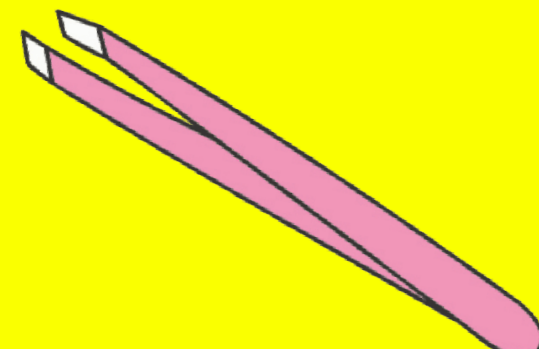

Growing up as millennial girl meant being bald from the eyelashes down but definitely NOT bald from the eyelashes-up, lest you be labelled a Britney Spears Circa 2007, who had lost her marbles and was no longer considered sexy to the dudes in her hometown. GOD. FOR. BID. You were also NOT encouraged to TALK about your fears, but to read about them in Dolly Doctor, whilst flipping through pages of stick-thin women like Mischa Barton and Paris Hilton who definitely did NOT have cellulite.

PLUCKED! is a coming-of-age story about becoming a woman. It is a relatable and vulnerable tale about a country kid who decided to shave her head for charity and discover what life was like for a girl who was considered...grab your pearls... not pretty.

"O'Connor will have you laughing one moment, wiping a little tear the next... it is truly remarkable how a performer can make you feel so much. A heartwarming and change-inducing show!"
